

Participation and Inclusion

This document is about how we help you be part of your community.

It is written in a way that is easy to read.

Our services and staff respect who you are and what is important to you.

We support you to

- work toward your goals
- become more independent
- have a social life
- get a job

We educate school children and the community about including people with disability.

We give you and your family ways to have a say about your services.

We make sure you can make choices about your life.

We help you to be part of the community by having a job and doing things you enjoy.

We support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to take part in their community and culture.
